Spend a star-struck evening at InterContinental San Francisco's Michelin-starred Luce restaurant, and then whisk away halfway to the stars at the crest of Nob Hill for a night of music and romance at the InterContinental Mark Hopkins' legendary Top Of The Mark sky-lounge.

Or, start the evening with cocktails from the famed 100 Martinis menu at the Top Of The Mark while watching the sun set over the city skyline. Then, head down to Luce for a leisurely three-course dinner created by rising-star chef de cuisine Dominique Crenn.
