

"I don't know what to call the top of the Mark."

"That's it," they told him.

"What's it?"

"Top of the Mark."

And that's how the 19th-floor lounge got its name.

In 1939 hotelier and owner George D. Smith transformed the 19th-floor penthouse suite of the Mark Hopkins Hotel into a glass walled cocktail lounge with 360-degree views of San Francisco.

During World War II, servicemen would buy and leave a bottle in the care of the bartender so that the next soldier from their squadron could enjoy a drink, the only requirement being that whoever had the last sip would buy the next bottle.

The Top of the Mark has become a "must-see" destination for visitors from all over the world who come for the breathtaking views of San Francisco and the Bay, for the famed 100 Martinis menu, and perhaps even for a rendezvous with nostalgia.
